Marsha Foster Retires After 33 Years

To Marsha, the world is kind of like a garden. During her 33 years here at Sharpline, she never missed a chance to plant her unique seeds of joy, connection, and friendship. Initially hired in January 1992 in the Graphic Structures department, she completed her tenure here as 2nd Shift Inventory Supervisor and left some BIG shoes to fill for such a small person. “I will miss the people here,” she said. “They’re just wonderful.”

Gardening aficionados at Sharpline regularly sought Marsha’s input for their projects at home, and now that she’s retired, she hopes to put her expertise to work. “I would like to volunteer at Botanica,” she said.

Marsha, thank you for your hard work and the many moments of unforgettable joy. We miss you already!

Happy Birthday
